December 4, 2009

Dear Middle School and High School Parents:

I want to thank all of you for your cooperation, patience and help during these inclement weather days. Hopefully we can regroup and be fine the rest of 2009. Remember to stay tuned to KTSM, KVIA and KDBC for updates and the radio, 92.3 or 99.9 to get the latest updates on school closings. You can also access your email as a message is usually sent out also.

Today we have the Homecoming activities. Hopefully we have had some visitors from a few years back. Come and join us for the Wine and Cheese at El Convento from 4:00 to 5:30 pm.

Saturday is the Black and White Ball at the Marriot from 6:00 to 12:30. This includes the dinner, the dance and the auctions.

Monday is the Deck the Doors Contest. The day will end with long Homeroom to decorate the doors. Voting will be from 5:00 to 6:00 pm. Show Choir will have their Winter Concert at 6:00 pm in the Little Theater, tickets are $6.00. PAL will be selling light snacks in the foyer of the Little Theater. All parents are invited to come and see the beautiful doors created by the students and hear a super Christmas Concert!

Tuesday is the All Academy Mass on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception in the Gym. These All Academy Masses are very special because all three schools participate in the Liturgy. Parents are invited to attend.

Middle School will have their Christmas Program next Friday, December 11, 2009. in the Gym at 6:00 pm.

Next week is the last week of regular school. I am hoping that all of the students are working very hard to make sure that they pass their classes. This is the end of the semester with final coming the flowing week. If you have any questions you can access your students work and grades on the Loretto Famnet or you can email the teachers. There should be no surprises at report card time with all this available communication.
